Aashiqui 2 is a 2013 Bollywood romantic musical drama film directed by Mohit Suri. Starring Aditya Roy Kapoor and Shraddha Kapoor in the lead roles, it was produced by Bhushan Kumar, Krishan Kumar, and Mukesh Bhatt under the T-Series and Vishesh Films banners. Set in the early 2010s, Aashiqui 2 is a love story centring around the turbulent relationship between musicians Rahul and Aarohi, a relationship which is affected by Rahul's issues with alcohol abuse and temperament.

The film is the sequel to the 1990 musical blockbuster Aashiqui, and initially caused concern in the Indian media that the film could not live up to the high standards and success of the original. It holds noted similarities to 1976 American musical film A Star Is Born. Production of Aashiqui 2 began in 2011, with the principal photography taking place in Cape Town, Goa and Mumbai on a budget of INR90 million (US$1.4 million). The film which premiered on 26 April 2013 received a positive to mixed critical reception and became a major commercial success at the box-office despite featuring newcomers, earning INR1.1 billion (US$17 million) worldwide.[1] It was declared as a blockbuster by Box Office India after its three-week box office run, and is ranked among one of the highest grossing Hindi film of 2013 and the highest grossing film ever produced by Vishesh Films. The soundtrack to the film became very popular after its release; the songs "Tum Hi Ho" and "Sunn Raha Hai" topped the charts across various platforms in India. This film is based on the real life story of late Tamil actor .
